Directions to ArcelorMittal Cleveland Media Center

The Media Center does not have its own address; however, if you enter the following address in a GPS system or map/direction finder, you will be directed to the Media Center driveway:

3186 Independence Road
Cleveland, Ohio 44105

If coming from Cleveland Hopkins Airport:

Take I-71 North to I-480 East to I-77 North. Then follow the directions below, as if coming from Independence.

If coming from Independence:

If coming from Cleveland Hopkins Airport: Take I-71 North to I-480 East to I-77 North. Then follow the directions below, as if coming from Independence. Take I-77 North to Fleet Avenue. Turn left at the top of the ramp and then right onto Independence Road (immediately after crossing over I-77). You will be on Independence for about 1.5 – 2 miles. Pass the USW Local 979 Union Hall (3421 Independence Road, Cleveland, OH 44105) and proceed down the hill. You will pass Steel Warehouse and Heidtman Steel on the right and the ArcelorMittal Locomotive Shop on your left (Figure 1). As you pass under the train bridge, the Media Center driveway will be on your right hand side. The driveway is before crossing the first set of railroad tracks (Figure 2). Follow the drive and cross through the gated fence (be aware of active railroad tracks). Keep to the right and the Media Center is the grey building (Figure 3).
